Students Satisfactory Survey (SSS) Report
2022-23

About SSS:

The college conducted student satisfaction surveys, which helped effectively identify areas of the curriculum, teaching methods, and resources that needed improvement. Hence, the college conducted a survey and gathered feedback from students, which can help make informed decisions about how to enhance the learning experience and build trust among stakeholders.

Aim of SSS:

The college conducts SSS, its basic aim;

1. To measure the student satisfaction level with their experiences.
2. To assess the college facilities and student support services.
3. To identify teacher communication, quality of teaching, quality of teaching learning resources and methodology etc.

Methodology of Survey:

The student satisfaction survey was conducted at the end of the academic year 2022-23; in this survey, we randomly distributed survey forms to the students of Arts and Commerce. The result and analysis are as follows:

Result Analysis and Conclusion:

The survey questionnaires mainly depend on the following parameters: student support service, quality of the teaching-learning process and teaching quality, physical facilities and infrastructure, teaching and learning resources, and methodology. It is stated that, the student satisfaction level on overall college performance. It is noted that most students give positive feedback, i.e., the majority of 58.75% are rated as 'A' by students of the Marathi department, followed by 81.25% rated Hindi, 84.37% rated Economics, 68.75% rated History, 52.50% rated Sociology, and 74.29% rated B. Com., respectively. Moreover, this shows the majority (71% of students) are satisfied regarding student support and facilities, quality teaching and learning methodologies, college facilities, etc. Considering the gap in students' facilities and support, college management will take initiatives to support college development activities in the academic year 2023-24. The next student satisfaction survey will be held in March 2024.
